

Fact and Opinion

When reading it's important to distinguish facts and opinions. Facts are true information, while opinions are what people may believe or feel.

_____ is a fact
because we can prove (verify) that it's true.

_____ is an opinion
because it tells how someones feels/thinks.

_____ is an opinion
because people might feel/think differently
about it.